Dear Karen:

Just a note to thank you for your consulting and grant writing assistance the past 6 months.

First, it has been a pleasure working with you. You are most reliable and responsive. We were very selective in seeking assistance for the first time and while the true fruits of your help is not yet determinable, you met all our expectations.

More specifically, your ability to strategize and your insightfulness has been invaluable, and will be sorely missed.

Second, your credibility and contacts were a big help. I personally admired your preference to stay in the rear and let the grant requests stand on their own merits.

Personally I hope we get to work together again. Please do not hesitate to use myself and/or FPC as a reference. Let's stay in touch.

Sincerely,

David E. Potter
